

American's demand an extension on your suggested vote date on this complex, far reaching, little known issue. Localism and diversity are esstential for our publically owned airways, and our democracy.